2 Deeper Learning: Leadership from Accidental to Intentional with guest

speaker Tom Vander Ark

March 2, 2017 9:00 A.M. - 3:30 P.M. Galt House, Louisville

In this session, you will experience deeper learning through Ted Talks by Tom Vander Ark and interactive activities designed and facilitated by UK's Next Generation Leaders. Additionally, you will hear from Kentucky school and district administrators currently engaged in transforming education to ensure deeper levels of learning for students at all levels. Participants will explore questions, such as: • what should students know and be able to do upon completion of each level (elementary, middle and high)? • What should students know and be able to do beyond accountability? • What is currently unique and innovative in your school or district? • What local curriculum/pedagogy supports deeper learning? • What systems are currently being used to measure learning that really matters?

3 NKU University Camp Innovation Pathways to College Program

for Gifted and Talented Youth Program

MARCH 11, 18, and 25, 2017 - NKU

Camp Innovation is a trailblazing program designed for high potential and gifted youth to discover and explore advanced content and engaged learning. All classes provide the opportunity for students to share interests with other children while exploring pathways to intellectual development, academic enhancement, career exploration, and creative artistic fulfillment. We offer transdisciplinary courses infusing entrepreneurship, science, mathematics, social studies, technology, visual and performing arts, and original interdisciplinary studies. The program will be held Saturdays, March 11, 18, and 25th at Northern Kentucky University. This enrichment program allows the opportunity for students in kindergarten through sixth grade to attend classes at Northern Kentucky University and learn with peers of similar abilities and interests. Our program brochure is appended and can also be downloaded from our website <http://gifted.nku.edu>. Online registration begins Monday, January 23rd and will continue through February 28th. For the best choice of classes, we encourage students to register early. If you have any questions or would like further information, Camp Innovation Director, Dr. Kimberly Code can be reached at codek@nku.edu or phone 859-572-6685.

5 Melinda Jacobs, Attorney at Law Presents:

SPECIAL EDUCATION LAW: WHAT'S NEW AND WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW IN 2017

MARCH 24, 2017 – 8:30 AM – 3:30 PM, Indiana Wesleyan

Melinda Jacobs is an attorney in private practice who has worked in the field of special education law since 1985. Since 1996, she has exclusively represented school systems in special education matters pursuant to the individuals with Disabilities Education Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and related programs for the Tennessee Department of Education and as Associate Publisher for Education and Disability Publications for LRP Publications.

The best way to avoid costly and unnecessary special education litigation is to learn from the mistakes of others and from the legal trends facing the field. In this seminar, school attorney Melinda Jacobs, will guide participants through the most important judicial decisions of the year, providing her expert commentary and tips for navigating current legal trends and challenges facing school districts. Topics include FAPE, LRE, Private Placements, Section 504 Title II of the ADA, Evaluation/Child Find, Service Animals in Schools, and the Rights of Transgender Students with Disabilities.
